Academic Program Description

Program message .٢
The department's mission is to contribute effectively to meeting the needs of society, and to disseminate historical knowledge at the theoretical and field levels in accordance with the approved standards and requirements of official educational institutions, with full awareness of society's problems and professional ethics through the contributions made by faculty members to enrich historical knowledge through teaching and conducting solid scientific research. Purposeful writing and translation, in addition to serving the community through historical consultations and holding conferences, seminars, courses, lectures and workshops in a way that keeps pace with scientific developments in the field of history.

Program Goals Academic.٣
In line with the objectives of Anbar University and the College of Education for Girls, the programs of the History Department were designed to achieve the following objectives: First: At the level of education and learning: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Preparing female teachers and guides in the field of history and heritage with a high level of competence, professionalism and the ability to bring about the desired change in society and meet the needs of the labor market in official and private institutions. - Developing female students' skills in reconciling the theoretical and practical aspects of professional work in the field of history in accordance with educational developments in the educational process.

- Employing technological techniques and modern educational programs, and adopting them in the educational process in accordance with comprehensive quality standards.
 - Developing positive attitudes towards the teaching and counseling profession, and developing awareness of professional ethics.
- Second: At the level of scientific research:
- Conducting sound theoretical research by faculty members in the field of general history to meet the challenges facing.
 - Providing female students with scientific research skills in the field of history to enable female students to continue postgraduate studies.
- Activating the department's role as a research advisory center in the field of history - Contributing to raising the level of historical knowledge for different segments of society by providing services and consultations in the field of historical knowledge.
- Increasing awareness of the importance of historical knowledge in the development of society.
- Third: At the level of community service:
- Building an integrated system that handles the methods of transferring historical knowledge between the university and society, including teachers and students, sheds light on the needs of historical knowledge, and helps alleviate the various problems of society in accordance with contemporary trends through seminars, courses, lectures and meetings.

Program accreditation.ξ

The department's self-evaluation report is the file for evaluating the scientific department in terms of a comprehensive examination of the overall tasks, functions and activities, taking into account the mission and objectives of the department within the quality assurance standards and accreditation and programmatic standards for the Department of History in accordance with the standards of the NCATE program accreditation standards . The responsibility for conducting the self-study falls on those in charge of the department under the supervision of the Quality Assurance and University Performance Division in the college, so that everyone is committed to conducting an objective and scientific self-evaluation in the department in light of its mission, where the evaluation is an effective means of knowing the strengths and weaknesses and improvement plans, and it should also support the results of the evaluation. By attaching the required evidence and documentary property, this was done through the following procedures:

Forming a committee to write a self-evaluation report for the History Department in accordance with program accreditation standards.

Holding periodic meetings to follow up on the progress of work according to the plans formulated by the committee within precise timings, identifying obstacles and trying to solve them.

The necessary data is collected and documented by the relevant department, authenticated by the Head of the History Department, and then authenticated by the Dean of the College.

Other external influences.

The program is prepared within the framework of all external variables, including challenges and the opportunities or threats they produce, and internal variables and the strengths or weaknesses they produce.
